
LOOKING UNTO JESUS

. . . out of God's Bible. Knowing this, that if my words fail, His won't. So I want to read a— a Scripture out of the book of Isaiah. And I got some Scriptures written out here, and a few comments that I'd like to make mention of, as quick as is possible, and then go right in to have the prayer for the sick again, tonight.

² I want to take this opportunity, while we're turning to Isaiah 45, I want to take this opportunity to thank all the ministers that's cooperated in this meeting.

³ Brother Shores, very dear friend of mine, he represents the Assemblies of God, here in the city. Brother Outlaw, another precious friend of mine, from the Jesus Name Church. Brother Fuller, from the Independence, another precious friend of mine. Not only these three man, they represent the three major groups, but other ministers that I have ministered for, in previous, of other campaigns, they all cooperated and come together, and the people's come out. I certainly trust, my brethren, that many of your people, that were sick and needy, got help during this time. And I am sure that I tried all I knowed how to do, and I am sure the Holy Spirit will confirm what's been said and done.

⁴ So, the Lord bless you now as we look to the Bible. Isaiah 45, beginning with 22nd chap- . . . or the 22nd verse.

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall answer.

⁵ I know that isn't very much reading of the Scripture, but that's sufficient because It's Eternal. It's God's Word. And if I should call this a text now, for about twenty minutes, or thirty, I would like to say, I want to say: Looking Unto Jesus.

7 Many say, "We've heard this for many years, 'Look unto Me. Look unto Me.'" Well, that's true. But the thing, the question is, is what do you see when you look? You've been asked that for a long time, "Look unto Me."

8 Hear people say, "Look." If they mention the word look, means, "to pay attention, look up, or to look at, and look out."

9 And now God is saying here, "Look unto Me. I am God, and there is none other."

10 And I wonder, in a time that we are living in now, what could we look to that would be more solid than God? And God is the Word, so look to the Word of God, today, for your answer. The Bible has the answer for this day. It's had it for other days. It's got it forever, because it is Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever.

11 The Bible has the answer, because the Bible is the revelation of Jesus Christ, being revealed since the foundation of the world. He has been revealed in the form of prophets, He has been revealed in the form of kings, He has been revealed in the form of law-givers, because that's what He is: King, Prophet, Law-Giver, and God.

Now, He said, "Look to Me."

12 And you say, "I've done that." It depends on what you looked at, determines what you look at, is where and what you look for Him for. What are you looking at? What purpose do you have in looking at Him? It only depends on what you look for, that's what you find.

13 Usually, people come to a meeting, a religious gathering, some of them go to find a big crowd of people to set with. Some . . . Oh, I hate to say this, but it's true. Some go to church just to show their clothes they're wearing. Some goes to church because they say, "This is the biggest church in the city; or it's—it's got the best name; a certain class of people goes to this church," then that's—that's wrong. See? You're not looking to the right thing that the church is established for.

God said, "Look to Me."

14 Many people go to the services and just to be seen. And sometimes people go to services . . . This is too bad to say this, and we could linger on it a long time. But they go to church with their mind already made up before they go. If certain things is said, or something just against their idea, they'll get right up and walk out. They just simply will not stand, because they've got their own idea what it must be.

15 That's the very reason that Jesus was not understood when He came to the earth. If they would have only looked into the Word of God, instead of their—of their tradition of that day, they would have known He was the Son of God. Because, the Bible plainly declared His full coming, and He come in full revelation of the Word.

16 And each generation reveals Him in the full revelation that's lotted for that time.

17 This generation must reveal Jesus Christ. That's the revelation of Him that's promised in the Word, must be revealed to this generation. If the churches won't receive It, somebody will rise up and do It.

18 Cause, John said, "God is able of these stones to rise children unto Abraham. Don't think to say within yourself, 'We have Abraham to our father,' for God is able of these stones to rise children to Abraham."

19 "For what God has said, God is fully able to perform what He has promised to do. Our father Abraham realized that, and against hope he believed in hope; and staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong, giving praise to God, because God made him the promise."

20 He has made us a promise for this day. He has made us a promise. And our promise today is just as sure to be revealed as it was to Abraham, for we are the children of Abraham, "Being dead in Christ, we are Abraham's Seed, and heirs with Him according to the promise."

21 So many people come in, drawed up their opinion, set in a Full Gospel meeting, or any other meeting, and they'll just wait just for a few moments until something is said that they don't agree with, then up and out. They just won't stay to hear any more. They got. . . They won't stay to see if there was, and what the Truth of it is.

22 Now we say, "Is that spirit? Where did that come from?" It's always been. That come from Genesis. It was down through the Scripture. Many time. . .

23 When Paul was speaking one time, rather, to a group of people, why, they—they listened at him closely as long as he stayed in the law. But when he begin to tell about the revelation, the Heavenly vision, quickly it changed the congregation. They rose up, to screaming. If they'd just listened to what the man said, he was revealing the Truth of God, by the Word.

24 Sometime ago, in a big city, in this United States, I was invited for a revival. Just very few—few people there that turned out. Probably, in the entire revival, there was no more than is right in this building tonight. And I thought, "Well, I would give a—a breakfast, free breakfast." And I taken my love offering to make the breakfast free to some of the ecumenical believers there in the city, and told them to “Come out, I would like to speak with them and tell them my purpose of being there: to help the city, to help the sick, to help them, every church.”

²⁵ Well, that morning, when Doctor Lee Vayle was my speaker at the campaign, he had introduced me to the—the audience, after the breakfast, and I took the—this text, “I was not disobedient to the Heavenly vision.” Just in a moment, I noticed a minister looked at his watch, reached over and nodded his head to the other fellow, got up and went out. Before I had said six or eight words, almost a third of that ministerial group had walked out. Before I’d had five minutes of speaking just what Paul said, that he was “not disobedient to the heavenly vision,” because God had called him to this work, they seen right then where I was going to base my thought. There wasn’t over one third of the group left. Now that’s not even giving Christian consideration, as a man that would name the Name of Jesus Christ.

²⁶ I say this with respects, but I say it to sink in. I had more understanding, and better fellowship, with a bunch of African witch doctors than I did that group of ministers that morning. They give more consideration to the Word of God, and asked questions, for the . . . that I could give them the hope that laid within me, for the hope of Eternal Life.

²⁷ These ministers had no time for It at all. Just quickly, as soon as you would say something, out they’d go. And so that’s the way it is. They got their mind made up, they just stay so long, and that’s all they want to know. If it one Word disagreeing with any petty thing that they believe in, they cannot stay and listen through It. That’s the reason they couldn’t believe Jesus Christ at His first advent. That’s the reason they’ll miss Him in the Second.

²⁸ They miss Him each time. They always have. And He’s revealed Hissself in Moses, revealed Hissself in Noah, revealed Hissself in Elijah, all the prophets, they missed it each time. Jesus said, “Which one of your fathers hasn’t put the prophets in the tombs out there that they are garnishing now?” That’s true. It’s always been true. It’s true yet today.

²⁹ And, yet, in the midst of all this, we’re commanded to look. “Look at Him, all the ends of the world.”

³⁰ Sometimes they come in, a man will judge you by what kind of clothes. If you don’t wear ministerial clothes, and so forth, then that’s out, they won’t have nothing to do with you. Sometimes they want to look to see what kind of an education you have, if you speak your words proper, if you stand correctly, how you use your nouns and pronouns.

³¹ Frankly, I don't know which is noun or pronoun. I couldn't tell you. So, that, that's out, for me, and I—I just don't know. I couldn't make the difference between a noun and a pronoun. I did when I was in school, but I have forgotten that a long time ago.

³² I just know one thing, and that's Jesus Christ in the power of His resurrection, that's all I know how to say about. The adjectives and pronouns, I know nothing. And I think that's what we all come together for in meetings like this, is to know Him; not know nouns and pronouns, but know Him, Jesus Christ, in the power of His resurrection.

³³ Now, some people, when they look to Jesus, they look and see Him, look and look at Him, and, then they see Him, they see in Him only a church founder, or a—a—a church organizer, or maybe a—a creed for a church. That's what many people look to Jesus to see. He is just a new creed that was added to an old doctrine. Now many people look and see Him like that.

³⁵ But, the question is, what do you see when you look at Him? Do you see the second person of the trinity, or do you see a trinity, three in One? You'll only see Him as you look at Him through the Word. That's the only way you know It, because He is the Word. It'll reveal Himself. Depends on what you're looking for.

³⁶ If you look to Him, to argue, then you're looking wrong. He didn't argue. It wasn't meet for Him to argue.

³⁷ Remember, you see Him as you look at Him through His Word, and recognize Him. Now you cannot see Him until your eyes is opened to the fact. Two man can look at the same Scripture and disagree; one of them has got to be right, and the other one wrong.

³⁹ Look at Dothan down there, that day when Elijah had been surrounded by the Syrian army. And his faithful servant, Gehazi, who lived with him, waited on him, cooked for him, and kept his clothes clean, poured water on his hands; was right with him, day and night, listened to him teach and preach. And that morning when he woke up, he looked out and he seen the Syrian army all around; he said, “My father, alas, look at the opposition we have, the whole Syrian army!”

⁴⁰ You see, Elijah, when he rose up, and looked, he saw something that Gehazi didn’t see. And so he prayed, “God, open this young man’s eyes.” Now, his eyes were wide open, but he said, “Open his eyes, that he might see.” And when his eyes, spiritually, came open, the whole mountains was full of chariots of Fire and Angels all around that prophet. See, it was different when his eyes came open.

⁴¹ Now, people look at the Word, literally, and that’s the way you are supposed to look at It, but It declares Itself both literally and spiritually. The Spirit makes the Word to live to the promise. In other words, It’s a Seed, the Spirit gives Its Life. It unctionizes, It gives It Its—its go, like rain gives to the seed that’s buried in the ground. It breaks forth, Life. And when you look at Jesus as the promised Word of the hour, then it will be revealed to you. If you look at Him, you’ll see that He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, the same Christ.

⁴² A portion of God’s Word has been lotted to every generation, all the way from Genesis. God always sends someone. Usually the ecclesiastics gets It so mixed up until it’s in traditions, and so forth, as it was in the coming of Jesus, and then God sends a prophet along. “The Word of the Lord comes to the prophet,” he reveals It. Stoned to death, or put out, kicked out; and then, after he is gone a while, they build his tomb and say he was a great man. They live in a shadow of what he was back there, and refuse the Word going on today.

⁴⁵ And, when He did, He did something there the way He done it before His crucifixion and His resurrection. Before He was crucified, they seen Him do it just like He did. They recognized it was Him, though been with Him all day long and never recognized Who He was.

46 It's possible, today, that good man, fine man, walk with Christ, reading His Word, and still don't recognize that this is the hour that certain things of this Bible must be fulfilled. It's the hour that we're living in, the time is at hand when these things must be done. It's written, and thus it must be fulfilled because God promised it. Yes, our eyes must be opened to see the Word. Now, you can look at the Word. . .

47 The Pharisees had that Word drawn out just exactly the way the Messiah was coming. They believed they were right. And here He was born and walked right among them, and they condemned Him; when He told them, "You search the Scriptures, for in Them you think you have Eternal Life, and They are They that testify of Me."

"Search the Scriptures."

They said, "We are Moses' disciples."

48 He said, "If you would be Moses' disciples, you would know Me, for Moses wrote of Me."

49 And He did. Moses said, "The Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet like unto me, a law-giver, and so forth, and a Prophet, and Him the people shall hear."

50 See, if they'd have knowed Moses' writing, they would have knowed Him. They thought they knowed Moses' writing, but, you see, they didn't know it. See, they were blinded to that very fact.

51 So just a few words from Him, like that, what did they do? Sprung up and said, "This Man has got a devil. Comes to teach us? What school did He come from? We have no record of Him. Wonder whose fellowship card He is packing?" Or, something on that order was the question.

52 But they failed to look and see that the very God that promised the Word was a vindicating it right there through that Person of Jesus Christ, for He was the Light of the hour. He was the Light for the people to walk in. And, only Word of God produces Light. Only God's Word produces Light.

53 God's Word produces the sunshine. God's Word produces the earth. God's Word produces the air. Everything is the Word of God made manifest, everything that's got a reality to it.

54 When He was here, He said, "I am God, and besides Me there is no other."

Some looked. Let's take some that did look.

55 Isaiah, one time, a young prophet. . . Here last time at Phoenix, I spoke of him, to—to the businessmen, I believe it was. How he had been leaning heavy upon the king's shoulder, Uzziah, and we find out that Uzziah got all puffed up and he was stricken with leprosy. Then Isaiah had to go down to the temple and pray, and say, confess him to be a sinner. And he saw the Cherubims coming forth, with their wings covering their holy faces, and feet, and flying with wings, and crying, "Holy is the Lord God." When Isaiah got a glimpse of Jesus Christ, here is what he saw. He never saw any just ordinary man. He never saw a philosopher.

⁵⁶ As most of our Protestant churches today, I think it's sixty-eight or eighty-six percent of them, in a survey, denied believing. They deny the virgin birth of Jesus Christ; our Protestant preachers. That's right. This is off of statistics. Right down, they deny the virgin birth. They do not believe it was actually virgin. So, then, Isaiah didn't see something like that. Some of them, they said, "He was a good man." Some of them, like some of our denominations today, said, "He's a good Man. Sure, there is no fault in Him, but, I tell you, His Words cannot be established or believed today."

⁵⁷ Well, any belief and any faith that's established outside of the Word of God, let it alone. Jesus said, "Every man's word will fail, but Mine will not. Heavens and earth will pass away, but My Word shall never pass away."

⁵⁸ So, therefore, any creed or anything that's not built on this Word of God, all the Word of God! Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word." Not just a Word here and a Word there, and a little thing here and there, and put It together; but "Every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God!" Man shall take every Word of the Bible! Put It together. . . It's already together; just read It and believe It, act upon It, God will honor It.

⁵⁹ Now we find out that, Isaiah, when he looked. What did you see, Isaiah? He saw One was called, "Counsellor, Prince of Peace, mighty God, everlasting Father." That's what he looked.

⁶¹ Therefore, He will rule the world, someday. People are struggling today for a world ruler; each nation wants their language, their—their thoughts; each denomination wants their groups over the other. But there is coming One, and that will be Jesus Christ. He is the Ruler of the universe; none less than God Himself.

⁶² Nebuchadnezzar, one day, had done an evil thing, he threwed three believing children into the fiery furnace. And when he opened the door to see how they were getting along in there, he saw the fourth Man on the inside of the furnace. And what did you see when you looked, Nebuchadnezzar? He said, “He looked like the Son of God.” That’s what he saw when he looked into a crime that he had done, there was One that looked like the Son of God.

⁶⁵ And when the Word come to him, walked out in the water and said, “I want to be baptized.”

⁶⁶ And John said, “I have need to be baptized of Thee, and why comest Thou unto me?”

⁶⁷ He said, “Suffer it to be so now, for thus it is becoming to us to fulfill all righteousness.”

⁶⁸ Did you ever think why John said that? Why would John say that to Jesus? Why? Because it’s. . . It was becoming to them. They were. . .

⁶⁹ There was the—the prophet and the Word, and the Word had come to the prophet, now it was becoming to them that all righteousness must be fulfilled. What happened? Then John baptized Jesus. Because, John being a prophet and knowed the Word, the sacrifice must be washed before it’s presented, and that’s why John baptized Jesus.

70 John looked, and he saw. How did he know this was Jesus? He saw a dove, that had been told him by the Spirit of God. “And upon Whom thou shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining on, He is the One that will baptize with the Holy Ghost and Fire.”

71 Noah looked. We find out here, there was another man looked, by the name of Noah—Noah. He looked and saw the justice of God upon. . . The just judgment of God, rather, upon a wicked Word-denying generation, was being poured out. In his vision, as Noah was a prophet, God had give him a vision of how to build the ark, and instructed him how to make the construction, how it must be built. In this, how could Noah, unless this vision being the Word of God, when he seen this wrath and making a way of preparation?

72 Always, before coming judgment, there is a preparation made. It always is the Word of God.

73 And when he was constructing the Word of God together, bearing record that his vision was true and he believed in it, scoffers made fun of him, and so forth. But Noah had looked ahead and seen the justice of God had to require the judgment upon the people, and he constructed an ark to save his own household. When he looked, he saw the coming wrath of God, and he made preparations for the people to escape this thing.

74 So did John the Baptist, he made preparation for the escape.

75 And so is the Holy Ghost, today, forerunning the Coming of Jesus Christ, is making a construction, the Body of Jesus Christ. We are baptized into It; not by a creed, not by denomination or a handshake. But, “By the Spirit of God we are baptized into the Body of Jesus Christ,” a construction that will stand the judgments, because It’s already been judged. “When I see the Blood, I’ll pass over you.” Yes.

Noah, he looked and he saw what was coming.

76 Moses looked, one day, he seen a Pillar of Fire. It attracted his attention. This great theologian, he had run with all of his theological training, and his understanding (by his mother) of the Word Itself. Of how that he was to deliver the children of Israel. But when he tried in his way, he failed. And although his mother had thoroughly instructed him on what to do, and what he would do, and what God had raised him up for. All this knowledge, as good as it is, and it is good, but yet it had to be set off. That was only mechanics.

77 Mechanics ain’t what runs the automobile. It’s the dynamics that runs it.

78 The mechanics don’t run the church; it’s the dynamics, the Holy Ghost that gets into this Word. It’s not a seminary that teaches you all the theology and the Greek interpretations. But it's the dynamics of the Holy Ghost in there, to set That afire and to bring it to pass, and to make it live just exactly what the promised Word is for this hour. Not the mechanics; the dynamics! It takes mechanics and dynamics, the Word and the Spirit, they are the One that gives Life.

⁷⁹ What God promised for the hour, look for it to be fulfilled. You must look to Him, because He is the Word. And the only way you can look to the Word, is look to Him. Look to Him, He is the Word, and the Word promised for this day is to be fulfilled this day. Noah's time could not be filled this day; it was only a type, Moses' time, and so forth. But this is the day that God has promised these things that we're now enjoying, these things that we're now seeing, that the world is laughing at, this great momentous power of the Holy Spirit that can change a sinner's heart, that can take a lukewarm church member and give him a testimony that will set the church afire, from where he come out of. It's the dynamic that got into the Word.

⁸⁰ As I've often said, I've found two classes of people. One of them is the fundamental; positionally he knows where he is in Christ, because of the Word, but he doesn't have any faith in what he is doing. He hasn't received the Holy Spirit. Then I find the Pentecostals, many of them has received the Holy Ghost, but don't know who they are. Just like a man who has got money in the bank and can't write a check, and the other one can write a check and got no money in the bank. If you could get those two together, if you could get the Pentecostal to realize who he is, and come back to the real, full Word of God; with that baptism of the Holy Ghost, it'll set the world afire again with a new pentecostal revival. Brother, sister, that's true.

⁸¹ "Look unto Me, all ye ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none other besides Me."

⁸² Oh, we can discern communism, we can discern everything else, but wonder if we can discern the portion of Word that's lotted by God for this day? I wonder if we can see the sign that God told us would be here on earth at this day? I wonder if we do it?

⁸³ Yes, back to Moses again. He was all . . . had all the mechanics about it, but one day in a burning bush, he heard a Man speak out with a human voice, a burning Pillar of Fire back in a bush, speak out in a human voice, and said, "I AM THAT I AM. And I've heard the groans of My people. I remember My Word, and I'm come down to deliver them. And I'm sending you to do it." What a different man that was, as soon as he got the . . . He had the mechanics, but he had got the dynamics in it. "Surely, I'll be with you." That's all it took for Moses to go, he looked and he saw in the burning bush.

84 Later in the trip, we find Israel when they were coming out. They looked, too, and they seen a brass serpent. And in this brass serpent that was set up for their sickness. . . They had sinned, and they seen a brass serpent. In this brass serpent they seen, in type, the judgment that God would put upon Jesus Christ, to die for all of us unworthy sinners, guilty. That's what he saw.

85 The disciples looked on Him, one time, in trouble, out on the sea, and what did they see? They seen their help. They seen help coming through Him.

86 Martha, one day when she had a death in the family, her own brother was dead, Lazarus, the only brother she had. She looked to Him in the time of death, and she saw resurrection and Life. That's what she saw in Him. Now, it seemed like He had turned her down; He had went away when her brother died. But the first thing you know, all at once He found out. . . After the boy had been dead, and buried for four days, he was already stinking.

87 Martha knew there was something about Him was different. She had read the Scripture. She believed Him to be the Son of God, Emmanuel, God made manifest. She knowed that He was God's representative. And she knowed, if Elijah could raise up a dead baby, and him being just a portion of the Word, for the hour; Christ was the fulness of the Word, she knowed surely He had power to raise up her brother. And when she went to Him in the hour of death, in bereavement, she found resurrection and Life when she looked to Him. She didn't look to Him to criticize Him, or ask Him why He didn't come, or question Him.

88 You should never question the Word of God. That's what got the whole human race into trouble, when Eve questioned whether God would keep all of His Word or not. I say tonight, brethren, it's come time that we must believe every Word that God wrote. It's every bit, the Truth. "Man shall live by every Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

89 Now we find out that Mary found resurrection and Life.

90 So did Jairus, the little priest, a secret believer, that when he saw Jesus and looked upon Him, he found resurrection and Life.

91 The hungry people looked to Him, one day, and found sustaining bread; a type that the hungry today can find the Bread of Life, not find a creed. You don't find a founder, you don't find a reformer; you find Life when you find Christ, the Bread of Life.

92 The dying thief looked to Him, in the hour of distress, and what did he find? He found His pardon. Who else could he look to?

The Roman government wouldn't pardon him. No one else would pardon him. But he looked to Jesus, in his distress, and he found Somebody Who could pardon him.

⁹³ My brother, sister, tonight, if you are hanging like he was then, on the balance of condemnation; and knowing, if you'd die, tonight, as a lukewarm church member, or a lukewarm Pentecostal, or whatever you might be, you know where you are going. Look to Him, tonight, the One Who can set you free. One, tonight, if you're just only a membership only, and don't know what the resurrection of Christ means to live in a human heart, look to Him. He is God, and He alone. You'll find pardoning like this poor, thick, sin-sick thief did, hanging on the Cross.

⁹⁴ The sick looked to Him. What did they find? They found a Healer. The sick tonight can still look to Him and find a Healer. They found in Him what was represented in the brass serpent; if that was the type, this was the antetype. The blind looked and could see. "He is the same yesterday, today, and forever." Hebrews 13:8.

⁹⁵ The poet looked one time, find what he could see. Blind Fanny Crosby looked one time, to see what she could see. Being blind, here was her answer:

Thou the Stream of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth beside Thee?
Or whom in Heaven but Thee?

⁹⁶ Eddie Perronet, one time, when he couldn't sell his songs and he wondered what to do. And he went back in his office, and that inspiration fell upon him, the Holy Spirit; grabbed the pen, and he looked and he saw Him in power, and he wrote and penned the song:

All hail the Power of Jesus' Name!
Let Angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

That's what he saw in Him. Oh, my!

⁹⁸ And finally, one day, with all the persuasion that Andrew could do, he finally got Peter to come listen Him, because He was going to have a meeting down there on the coast, one morning. He went down to hear the Word of God. And while he walked up in the Presence of Jesus Christ, what did Peter see when he looked on Him? He said, "Thou, your name is Simon, and you're the son of Jonas." That settled it forever. He knew the Word of God had been fulfilled.

⁹⁹ Nathanael, one time, a real believer in the Old Testament, looking forward for the coming of the Messiah. He was brought by Philip, a friend of his, in the Presence of Jesus, standing up on a platform, box stump, whatever it might be, praying for the sick. And when Nathanael walked into the prayer line, or whatever it was, and got the first look at Him, he heard a Voice come back to him, and said, "Behold an Israelite, in whom there is no guile."

¹⁰⁰ He said, "Rabbi, when did You know me? When did You ever see me?"

¹⁰¹ He said, "Before Philip called you, when I was. . . when you were under the tree, I saw you."

¹⁰² What did Nathanael confess that he saw? What did he say? "Thou art the Christ. Thou art the King of Israel. Thou art the son of God." That's what he saw when he saw the true Word of God for that day. Four hundred years without a prophet, and see Him know the very thoughts that was in his heart, and what he had done, he knew that could be nothing less than Messiah. We hadn't had it, they hadn't had it, and it was promised, and everybody knowed the time was at hand.

¹⁰³ So do we know the same thing today, we know Jesus promised these things. He said, "As it was in the days of Lot, so shall it be in the coming of the Son of man, so shall it be when He comes." We see these things happening.

¹⁰⁴ What do you see when you look? Do you see, you think of mythology, or—or you see some kind of a—a telepathy, or what do you think, like they did back there? The Pharisees looked upon Him, what'd they say? "This man has got a devil." The same people looking at the same Person, human beings: one saw the Son of God, a promised vindicated Word; and the other one called it a devil. What do you see? What are you looking at today when you see the power of the Holy Ghost sweep into a building, fulfilling His promise that in these last days what He would do? What do you see when you look? If you see the Word of God vindicated, then it's the Holy Spirit of God. Yes, sir.

¹⁰⁵ Nathanael saw the promised Word that he had lived for, to see the anointed promise made flesh. Moses, the prophet, had said so. That Moses, anointed prophet, had promised that Word.

A woman at the well, one day.

¹⁰⁶ Many people had turned Him down. The Pharisees and Sadducees had called Him a “devil.” They said, “He done this by fortune-telling. He was an evil spirit. He was mad. He had no place to go; that’s what was the trouble with Him, that He was just a—a renegade man.”

¹⁰⁷ What happened? What happened? He passed by Samaria, and the city of Sychar. And when He went out there, one day, and set down upon the—the little panoramic there. There was a woman came out to get a drink of water, and she said. . . And He heard her. She heard a Voice saying, “Bring Me a drink, woman.” And He . . . She looked over, what did she see?

¹⁰⁸ First, she couldn’t understand it. She questioned Him. “It’s not customary for you Samaritans to—to ask, or you Jews to ask Samaritans such.”

Said, “But, woman, if you knew Who you were talking to!”

¹⁰⁹ Now remember, there was a little Light, seed of Life laying there, had been predestinated from the foundation of the world. She was watching for It. She was sick and tired of all of their theology and stuff that they had said. But she was watching for something, ’cause she knowed there was coming a Messiah.

And He said, “Go get your husband and come here.”

She said, “I have none.”

Said, “You’ve told the truth. You’ve had five.”

¹¹⁰ Quickly, that little seed sprung to Life. What did she see? She saw the sign of the Messiah, in a Man. She saw the promised Word made manifest. She said, “Sir, I perceive that You’re a prophet. We haven’t had one for hundreds of years. We know that we’re promised that Messiah is coming, and, when He comes, He’ll tell us this. That’s what He’ll do.” See? What did she saw, what did she see? She saw the sign that was promised for that day, made manifest.

¹¹¹ The Holy Ghost is promised for this day, the power of His resurrection, a Church, that, “These signs shall follow them that believe.” Jesus promised, “And the things that I do shall you also.” What do you look when you see?

when you carry the flat Gospel, and see the Holy Ghost come in and make It manifest amongst an old-fashion bunch of people, it's foreign to you, it's hard for you to believe.

¹¹³ As I said the other night, about Joseph, "It was hard for him to think of Mary being pregnant. 'How could she be that, a holy little woman like that, and she said Gabriel had visited her?'" But it was so unusual. It was so unusual for a thing like that. It never happened before.

¹¹⁴ That's where God dwells, in the unusual, to the carnal mind. But those who believe Him to be the same yesterday, today, and forever, all things are possible. Every word that He promised will be fulfilled. It's the unusual things that makes Him God. He goes to the unusual. He makes everything unusual to the people. Yes, sir. All right.

¹¹⁵ The woman looked on Him, and she saw the sign of the Messiah, God manifested in flesh. Many, the same people, looked and didn't see nothing.

¹¹⁶ The unbelievers in the days of Noah, what did they see? A fanatic, blundering away on what he called a boat. That's all they seen. When, the very boat itself was constructed by a vision from Almighty God. The very thing that he was pounding on, his message he was preaching, he was constructing by his message, bearing record that he was righteous and was looking forward. He lived what he preached.

¹¹⁷ That's what we ought to do today. No man has got a right to preach until he is filled with the Holy Ghost. Right! Theologians and mathematicians, and so forth, can explain It all away from you. But if a man has ever been on the back-side of the desert, in that sacred spot, and met God like Moses did, there is no man can take that away from him. He knows! He was the one was there. There is nobody can tell him anything about it. He was there. That's the reason Jesus commanded His disciples, "Don't preach until you go up to the city of Jerusalem and receive Power from on High, then you shall be witnesses of Me." That's what they saw. Yes, sir.

¹¹⁹ I say, with Jack Moore, not quoting him, but saying this, for I think it's seasonable now. Jack Moore said, "If God don't sink America and burn her up, He'll have to raise up Sodom and Gomorrah and apologize for burning them." And that's the truth.

¹²¹ Look, there is no more religious times than it was the day that when Jesus came on earth, oh, everything was swallowed up in religion and tradition, and it's all wrong!

¹²² So was it when Amos, the little, baldheaded preacher; we don't know where he come from. His two little eyes narrowed when he come up across the hill and looked down into Samaria. It was a great city of tourists, like Phoenix. Many of the people come from over the world, to look, look at this great city, how beautiful it was. Oh, everything was going on, night clubs and a real place of gaiety, "a place to live," they said. But when this little farmer boy, struck by the Holy Spirit, come down through there, he had nobody to go ahead and make arrangements for his meetings, he had no signs up, no denomination to affiliate with him, or nobody to back him up. But when he walked up across the hill and narrowed those little eyes, as he looked down upon that city, he saw something that none of the rest of them saw. All of them seen the gaiety and stuff of the city. But he saw the pending judgment of God, and he prophesied against it. They called him "crazy." But eleven years later, it all happened just exactly the way he said.

¹²³ Man who can look upon church the way it's going today, and people the way they're going, and predict blessings in future? I predict judgment, that only. The just God requires judgment, for ignoring His Word. He's just to coming and identify It before us, and to make It right. But a just God, through all ages, He can't change His plan. He never changes His plan. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. His ways are the same. His Word is the same. All, He is the same. He is full of mercy when someone is ready to repent, but judgment will follow if you don't repent.

¹²⁴ Pharaoh, when he looked upon, and a so-called fanatic, so-called fanatic prophet, with many claims of deliverance, that's all he saw. But the Israelites saw the hand of God upon Moses. Yes, sir.

¹²⁵ The rich man looked and saw, had potentials, but his organization was greater than what he could go through with It. Where is his next look? He looked out of hell. That's exactly. Judgment come to him. That was the next time he looked. So will it be with many people today.

¹²⁶ The Roman soldier took a look, one time, when they crucified Jesus. He looked to see what He had done, but it was too late then.

127 Friends, America is going to do that, too. They are going to look someday, and say, "Truly that was the Son of God," but it will be too late. They had laughed and made fun for the last time.

128 He could only look then and see where he could have been saved, but it was too late then. He had crucified the Prince of Life.

129 And so many times, today, the people turn away Jesus Christ from their hearts, when they see Him clearly a vindicating Who He is, right in the midst of us. Yes, sir.

130 Pilate took a look, one day, and was convinced, but his politics was too great. He just couldn't, he couldn't stand up to it.

131 Luther took a look, and he saw justification. He went with it. Then they organized.

132 Wesley come along, seen sanctification when he look at Christ, that the church should be sanctified. And went right on with sanct- . . .

133 The Pentecost come along and seen the restoration of the gifts. What did they all do? Just exactly like the Catholic did, organized it, put it right back again.

134 O God! One day I took a look, and, when I did, I saw Alpha and Omega. I saw the Beginning and the End. I saw Jesus Christ the same yesterday and . . . I saw a Pardoner of my sin. I seen Someone that took my place. My!

What do you see when you look?

135 I'm looking right now at an old friend of mine, Bill Dauch, setting here. The man is going on ninety-two years old. A few days ago, not long ago, rather, about six months ago, he had a complete heart failure and heart attack, together.

136 "The doctor says he is dying." His wife called me up and said, "Brother Branham, come. He is dying. Bill is your friend."

And I said, "All right, I will do it."

137 And on my road up to his place, I was praying. "God, I hate to go tell him 'good-bye.' I know if he just lived till I get there, that I can tell him 'goodbye.'" Under oxygen, complete heart failure, ninety-one years old. I stepped outside of a filling station, and I looked, and, when I did, I seen Bill coming down the street and shook hands with me.

138 Here he sits tonight. The doctor that told him that, is dead. And here sits Bill Dauch himself, from Lima, Ohio, driving down through the sleet and snow, follows every meeting I go. Why? We looked; we saw something. That same God that I talked about last night, yonder in Colorado, in the time of a storm, I looked, I seen that He was the same yesterday, today, and forever.

139 Here sits Mr. Way, an Englishman, setting here on the side, right here now, just noticed him setting here. He is come from Indiana. He is an Englishman. His wife is a—a registered nurse. Fine man! One day, I talked to him. I was preaching in the meeting, he resented what I said, in his heart, and, when he did, he dropped dead right in the audience. There he died. His wife took a hold of him and felt him; his eyes, face turned dark, his eyes. . . not put on, his eyes pushed out and went back into the back of his head. I said, “Stand still.” Looked down there at him, and I thought, “Oh, there lays that man, dead.”

140 Went down, put my hands upon him, he was just as cold as that desk is. He was gone. Mrs. Way said, “Oh, Brother Branham, he is gone! He is gone.” Screaming at the top of her voice.

141 I looked away. I saw the resurrection and Life. I prayed the prayer that Jesus told me to, and Brother Way raised up. Here he sits right here tonight, come up from the dead, sitting right here tonight.

142 That’s right, Mr. Way, if you will just stand up just a minute, so the people will see. And here is Bill Dauch sitting here.

143 What is it? Because we look to Him Who is the same that raised Lazarus, He is the same as He was. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Yes, He don’t change.

144 Here sits a little preacher sitting here in front of me, by the name of Blair. His little boy was in an accident the other day, and his wife sitting there, wiping their eyes now from tears. They called me on the telephone down there, and he said, “Brother Branham, our little boy was in a car and run over the hill, and he is mashed, concussed his brain, and everything. He is gone, just about; just barely breathing.” Said, “Will you pray?”

I said, “Let’s pray.”

145 And started, looked, this on the phone, and started praying. I said, “Lord God, what shall I say to them?” I seen a little boy going, running and skipping a rope, running down like that. I said, “He is going to be well.” And here he is tonight. And here they are sitting here. Why? Because Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

146 Look! Look! What do you see when you see Him? I see the same Healer. Amen. I see the same One that walked in Galilee. I see Him in His power. I see Him discerning the thoughts and the secrets of the heart, a showing—showing the sign just before the end time. How we could go through this audience and across the nations, saying what He is today!

147 You know what I think? Like the old negro said one time, in the slave time. One day, he come around, he said, "You know, the . . . I'm free now." So he got to telling amongst the other slaves, and the slaves said . . .

148 And it got back to the owner. And the owner said, "Come in here, Sam." Said, "What's that you're telling amongst the slaves out there?"

He said, "Boss, I am free."

Said, "How are you free?"

149 He said, "I am free from the law of sin and death, for Jesus Christ has made me free."

He said, "Sam, you mean that?"

He said, "Yes."

150 Said, "I'll go down and sign your release, and let you go tell your brethren about that."

151 The old man preached for years and years. Finally, one day, he come to his door, he had to part from this life. And while he was laying on his bed, in a coma for a few days, many of his white brethren come along to—to see him, bid him good-bye, because he had been a gallant old soldier for Christ. While he was laying there on the bed, he come to, looked around, and he said, "Mose, aren't you, or . . ."

"Sam, aren't you gone yet?"

152 "No." Said, "I had to come back." He said "I thought I was there." Said, "I—I—I must have dreamed it." Said, "I thought I was there. And when I was standing there," said, "an Angel . . . I just been taken in the door, and," said, "an Angel come up and said, 'Sam, come get your crown, and come get your robe.'"

153 He said, "Don't talk to me about a crown and robe, just let me stand here and look at Him for a million years." He saw in Him the One that had set him free from sin and death. He saw there the One that stuck to him through thick and thin. O God!

154 The other morning, I was laying in my bed. I used to have . . . You know my life story. I had an old dog, we called him Fritz. He sent me to school; opossum hides, and things. Well, I used to take him every morning. I'd get up, way upstairs, in a little old log house, I'd hear him barking way down in the hollow. He never lied to me. Always went to him; he had something for me.

155 You know, one of these mornings, I'll hear him bark over there in the canyon. I must go over and see what he's got. It'll be all right.

156 Listen, brother, let me tell you. There is only one thing to look when you see Jesus Christ, that's see God in Him, the same yesterday, today, and forever. I believe He is here, tonight, to do for us the same as He did then.

Let us bow our heads just a moment, as we pray. Pray!

157 Is there one in here, tonight, would say, "Brother Branham, ask God to be merciful to me. I want to look and see Him different. I've looked at Him and guessed. I've looked at Him and wondered. I've looked at Him and questioned. Really, did He care for me. Does He love me? Is all these things that's been said about Him, is it true? I want to know if it's true. Will you ask Him to reveal it to me tonight?" Will you raise your hand? Lord bless you. That's good. Everywhere.

158 Precious Lord there is so much wrote about You. We know that You're the same yesterday, today, and forever. We pray, Lord, that, tonight, when we look, that we'll see Jesus Christ. You promised in Your Word, that, the works that You did, we would do also. You promised, in the last days, that You would be back here on earth, in the form of the Holy Spirit, the church would be full of power, the Holy Spirit. You said, "A little while, and it won't do the world no good to look, 'cause they won't see It. But ye shall see It, for I'll be with you, even in you, to the consummation."

159 Lord Jesus, while there is still an opportunity for man to look, may they look tonight and see Him in the power of His resurrection. He is not dead, but He lives forevermore, ready to make intercession for those who are ready to confess Him. Grant it, Lord. And may all these requests, that's been asked, be granted. Father, grant these things, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

160 Now it's prayer time for the sick. I prayed for you; believe that God will answer.

161 Now, I believe Billy said he give out more prayer cards. Was it B's? B's. All right. We haven't got time; I went a little bit over time; forgive me. I just got a few minutes. B, where did we—where did we leave off, at them, last night? Where did we leave off, where did we leave off last night? [Someone says, "We took all of them."—Ed.] Oh, took all? We'll just start from B, number one, then. All right.

162 Number one, who. . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] . . . three, four, five.

163 Somebody watch now. Get down here, Billy, some of you, right quick, 'cause we haven't got time now. We just. . . and don't take the time. Sometimes they're deaf and can't hear, and, or maybe can't get up, or something. If they are, why, we. . .

¹⁶⁴ Number one, two, three, four, five. All right, come forward here, if you will. There is one, two, three, four. . . That's right. Pardon me, sir. Six, seven, eight, nine, ten, let them stand now. Six, seven, eight, somebody now, eight, nine, ten. Eight, nine. . . All right. One, two, three, four, five. . . seven, eight, nine, ten. All right, ten to fifteen, stand up; in B's, well, that's all the cards was out. Fifteen, all right, fifteen to twenty, stand up. One to twenty, in prayer cards, take your place over here. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen. That's it. Twenty to twenty-five.

¹⁶⁵ How many doesn't have a prayer card? You still believe Him. While they're coming, taking their place, while them twenty-five is, first twenty-five is coming, let me ask you. The Bible said, in the Book of Hebrews, that "Jesus Christ is our High Priest." Do you believe that? [Congregation says, "Amen."—Ed.] "One that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities." Are we going to set, in this day, dull; and see our great High Priest make Hissself known among us, and then set like dumb driven cattle? No, sir. Let us be up and doing, with a heart for any strife. Be not like dumb driven cattle. Be a hero! You people look this way and believe. Look in the Scripture, what He promised. All right.

We won't take any time, we'll start right in the prayer line.

Let's pray again.

¹⁶⁶ Lord Jesus, it's in Your hands now. I am in Your hands. Lord, take the Word that You said, "like it was in the days of Sodom," one that I referred to tonight. You said, in Saint John 14:12, when You was talking to Your disciples about going away, You said, "He that believeth in Me, the works that I do shall he do also."

¹⁶⁷ The Bible said that, "God, in sundry times and divers manners spake to the prophets, or, spake to the fathers through the prophets; in this last days through His Son, Jesus Christ." And He is the Word. We know that the prophets came, the Spirit come upon them and made that Word live for that generation; cursed the kings, brought in judgment, brought out righteous, saved the lost; the prophets that the Word come to.

¹⁶⁸ Now in this last day, Lord, You promised. You said, "As it was in the days of Sodom," while Abraham sitting there in the heat of the day, the little, called-out Church. We look down across the world today, Father, we see Sodom exactly, Gentile's perverted, lukewarm. And we see these three angels appearing before Abraham.

169 Two of them went down to the lukewarm church, Lot, to try to call them out. Two went down there, a modern Billy Graham, to call them out; no miracles, only blinded their eyes. Preaching the Gospel does do that.

170 But there was One stayed up here to Abraham's group, signifying the elected, called out, that wasn't in Sodom; was born, out of Sodom, the true Church, the Abraham's Seed of today. And when this Man, that's talked to them, said, "Where is Sarah, your wife?"

Said, "She is in the tent behind You."

171 And He said, "I'm going to visit you according to the time of life." And she laughed.

172 He said, "Why did she laugh?" Discerned what she was saying and thinking in her, with His back turned to the tent where she was at.

173 Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God, has told us in His Word, "As it was in that day, so will it be in the coming of the Son of man."

174 And it's a very strange thing, Father, that there's never been a reformer, in all the ages, that's went down into Sodom, with a name ending "h-a-m," until today. Your servant, Billy Graham, down in Sodom doing his work.

175 Now, Father, I pray that You'll save the Seed of Abraham that's here tonight, fill them with the Holy Spirit of the precious promised Son. Immediately after this, God manifested in flesh did this sign, then the promised son came on the scene. God, we've been looking for Him for two thousand years, the Seed of Abraham. Many are sleeping; this is the seventh watch, we are looking for the cry to come at any time, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh."

176 Grant, tonight, Father, that people's understandings will be opened up, that they'll see that this sign was promised, just before the coming Son. Too, as the brass serpent typified Christ, so did the coming son and the sign of his coming (in the natural) typify the spiritual, of the coming Jesus today, the Royal Seed of Abraham. Grant it, Lord. We ask it in Jesus' Name, as we commit ourselves to You. Amen.

177 I would like to say one thing just before we pray for the sick. Many people have the wrong impression about a gift. A gift is not something that God gives you to go out and say, "Here, I'll go over here and pick out this, and I'll take that and I'll do this." That's not gifts. So many people think that, but they're wrongly impressed. A gift of God is just to know how to get yourself out of the way so God can use you, that's all a gift is. See? As long as you're in yourself. . .

178 Didn't Jesus say, Himself, "The Son can do . . ." Saint John 5:19, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the Son can do nothing in Himself." He passed by that pool where all them cripples was, and healed one man with prostrate trouble, or something (disease) retarded. He said "The Son can do nothing in Himself; but what He sees the Father doing, that doeth the Son likewise." "It's not me," He said, "that doeth the works; it's My Father that dwelleth in Me, He doeth the Works."

179 Now, you people setting out there, don't you dare to look to any man. You look to Christ; He is the One. But He promised in the last days that He would manifest Himself in human flesh, like He did there at Sodom. Now your flesh, my flesh, let us just open our hearts and get our own thinking away, and just let the Word take Its course, tonight, in us, then we'll see God's great gifts of His Spirit manifested before us.

180 Be real reverent. Nobody leave. Keep real quiet and pray. I'm sure you appreciate.

181 And if there is anybody here thinks this is a hoax, I challenge you to come to the platform. Anybody! Then, if you're afraid to do it, don't say nothing about it.

182 In the Name of Jesus Christ, I take every spirit in here, under my control, to declare the Word of God.

183 Here is a picture tonight, like Saint John the 4th chapter. A man and a woman meet together, I suppose for the first time. I don't know you. You probably know me, by papers and—and hearsay, but I don't know you. You know that. We're strangers to each other, like our Lord met a woman one time at the well; a man and a woman meeting, talking.

184 But if I come like one of some of our brethren, would say, "God gave me a gift of healing," . . .

185 You know what the gift of healing is? Faith in healing. See, you just release your faith, to pray for somebody, that's all a gift of healing is. Every minister should have it, everybody, see, should have gift of healing. The Power that heals you is on the inside of you, the Holy Spirit, you just have to let It work Its way out. That's all.

186 Just like the life that's in the tree. You don't have to pour the apples in the tree, to make it bear apples. It's just planted in the ground, and it drinks and pushes out.

187 Well, that's the way you do the Holy Spirit. It's on the inside of you. You just drink from the inexhaustible fountain of Jesus Christ, and It pushes out the fruits of the Spirit. See?

188 Now I'm standing here, not knowing you. God knows that. You're a total stranger.

189 Now if I went and put hands on you, and said, "Sister, you're going to get well." You could believe that, and that would be all right. But now what if He comes . . . See, that was the days gone by, back in the Pentecostal days.

190 We're living ahead of that now. We are beyond Pentecost, the same as we are Methodist and Lutheran. We're way on up to the coming of the Lord, where the ministry that Jesus Christ exercised, Himself, has to be exactly. Like the headstone on the pyramid, has to be so honed till every stone fits perfectly. And the church has got to get in that condition to receive the Headstone, then take the whole thing in the resurrection, when the Body is raised up.

191 Do you believe that? Do you believe these things that I tell you is the truth? You do? If the Lord Jesus will tell me something that you've done, something that you ought not have done, something that's wrong with you, or whatever it might be, financial, domestic, I don't know; whatever it is, you'll believe me, will you, to be His servant?

192 You are a Christian. See, I spoke to you just to find your spirit. See, that's the way He did it at the well; He said, "Bring Me a drink." You're a Christian. You are a believer. That's right. Not a hitchhiker; a believer! All right. Your trouble, your main trouble, is in your neck. On the back of your neck, you have a growth, and that growth is giving you pressure. It's ruining your eyes, and so forth. Is that right? That's THUS SAITH THE LORD. That's right. If you'll believe it, it'll leave. [The sister says, "That's true."—Ed.] God bless you. Go now.

193 How do you do, sir? I don't know you. We're strangers to one another. Jesus Christ is the same yester- . . . today, and forever. If I can relax myself, such enough that the Holy Spirit can use my lips and my eyes, just like . . .

194 Did you ever dream a dream? Sure. There is some—some part of you, you have to be inactive in your five senses. You have—you have a conscious and a subconscious. Your first conscious is here, and your subconscious is over here. You have to be inactive in your five senses, to go over here to dream; but when you come back, it impresses this till you remember what you dreamed of.

195 Now, seers, prophets, their subconscious is not over there; it's right here. You don't get out of your five senses; you stand, you are standing, dreaming. And you would say dream . . . I'd say, "Dream me a dream." You couldn't do it. Neither can I see you a vision. It takes God to do that. But, I don't go to sleep to see it, I stand here and see it. That's a gift of God. If I can get the first conscious out of the way, God will use the other conscious if He has anything to say. That's up to Him.

¹⁹⁶ But if I be able by the help of God. . . If Jesus was standing here with this suit on that He gave me, if you're sick He could not heal you; no, He has already did that when He died. But I don't know what you're here for. You're just a man. We're around, close the same age, and we're just—just standing here on the platform, meeting for the first time. Do you believe God can reveal to me your desires, or what you've done, or your hindrances? If He can tell you what has been, He can tell you what will be. Do you believe that?

¹⁹⁸ Yes, here It is, the Light coming over the man. All right, sir. No, sir, you're not here for yourself, you're here for somebody else, and that's a daughter. And that daughter lives in California, and she has had an automobile accident, sometime ago. And you're wanting me. . . You're standing, for me to pray for her, 'cause she is still afflicted by it. And, listen, let me tell you something, that automobile accident was not in California. It was in Dallas, Texas, where the automobile accident happened. Is that right? She is going to be well. Don't forget, I see her walk away. All right, believe. Go and believe now, brother. God bless you.

¹⁹⁹ How do you do, lady? I'm a stranger to you. We do not know one another. We're perfectly strangers. Do be-. . . you believe Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever? You believe Him? Now if the Holy Spirit can tell me something about you, that you know I know not, then that will make you believe, wouldn't it? You're. . . you have complications. You have many things, but, what your main thing is, you're about to face an operation on account of a tumor, and that tumor is in your side. That is right. That's right. That's what you're here to be prayed for. If I could tell you what your name is, would you believe me to be His prophet, or believe that it would be right? Miss Holman, go on your road, rejoicing. See? God bless you. Believe now. Don't doubt.

²⁰⁰ How do you do, lady? Strangers to one another. You're younger than I, just a woman and a man.

202 This man sitting here, with glasses on, got a spiritual problem in your mind. You don't know what to do. You're all messed up. You believe, and you'll come out all right. Yes, sir. You'll do that? All right.

Be reverent now.

203 Here is a little lady, sitting right in here, she looking like this, with her hands, praying. She has got a bad hand that she is praying about. If you'll believe, yes, God will make it well. I don't know you, you don't know me, but you touched Something. You never touched me; you're twenty feet from me. Jesus Christ heals you. Your faith makes you whole.

204 If that ain't this same Jesus, the High Priest, that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities! Don't you believe that to be so? [Congregation says, "Amen."—Ed.]

205 Excuse me, I just have to follow the way That goes.

206 Getting weak now, you see, just one . . . You know, our Lord, a woman touched His garment one time and He said . . .

207 Pardon me, this colored lady sitting here, praying; gall bladder trouble, high blood pressure. Believe, lady, it'll leave you. Amen.

208 I looked, there was a colored lady standing here, see, her faith drew It right away. Amen.

209 That lady right behind her, with asthma. If you'll believe that God will make you well of that asthma, you can have it, also, if you'll believe it.

210 You have a great desire in your heart, and that's a—a legitimate desire. You want a baby. And the reason you can't have it, you have a female trouble. And that's true. [The sister says, "That's what I put on the card."—Ed.] All right, do you believe now that you'll . . . that God will give it to you. ["Yes. That's right."] If the Lord Jesus will tell me who you are, will you believe? ["Yes."] Mrs. Lambert. ["That's right."] Now you go, believe it. Does that make you believe. ["Amen."] May she receive it, God, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Have faith!

211 Sir, we're strangers to one another, but God knows us both. Do you believe that the Lord Jesus will reveal to me your troubles? You do? You're not from here. You're not from Arizona. You're from a way, east, Michigan. That's right. Right. You have high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, hard of hearing. It's left you. Go back to Michigan, the Lord Jesus make you well.

Have faith in God!

212 The lady sitting out here, praying for her father. He has got Parkinson's disease. And the . . . I see him now, and he is shadowed.

Not only is he shadowed to death, but to Eternal death, because he is not saved. That's true. Do you believe that God will save him and heal him? If you've got faith enough to touch Jesus Christ, our High Priest, surely you can accept that.

²¹³ Now will you do me a favor? Put your hand on that woman next to you. She is praying for her brother. Yeah. That brother is sick, and he is also an alcoholic. That is true. Just believe, he'll stop drinking and get well.

"If thou canst believe, all things are possible!"

²¹⁴ The lady sitting here, praying, right here in front of me, got her head down. I can tell you, she is praying, "Lord, let it be me." The lady is . . . She is praying for a friend, and that friend is in the hospital here, dying with cancer; and for herself, also. She is going to miss it. Mrs. Kelly, stand up to your feet and accept the healing, in the Name of Jesus Christ. I never seen the woman, in my life.

²¹⁵ Do you believe God heals heart trouble? Do you believe He heals yours? All right, then just move on, saying, "Thank You, Dear God."

²¹⁷ All right, sir. You need a blood transfusion from Calvary, it cures diabetes and everything. You believe that He does that? All right, yours can be cured, too, if you'll just believe with all your heart.

²¹⁸ Come here. You're nervous, that's what's caused your trouble. You got an ulcered stomach. Do you believe that God will heal it? [The sister say, "Yes, I do."—Ed.] I want to show you something. I'll take my watch off just a minute. Nervous, it's kind of hard, but you're a good soul. Let me have your hand. I want to take your hand. Want you to look at my hand. Now watch, going to lay your hand up on top of mine. Now you see it, see them things running across there, them little vibrations like? ["Yes, I do."] That's that live ulcer. Now watch, take your hand off, now it turns back normally. Now I'll lay my hand on there, it doesn't do that, does it? ["No."] But I'll put your hand on it, there it is again. See? ["Yes."] Now there is something symbolizing there, that you can actually see with your own eyes. Is that right? ["Yes. Amen."] Raise your hand up so the audience can see that's true.

²¹⁹ Here, the audience can see it. Put your hand on here. Now take your hand off, lady. Now lay your hand back on there. It's a live ulcer. It's tissue, something eating up tissue. It's caused from nervousness, spreading. You have lady's trouble, too. All right.

220 Now, here, now this is when you have to take initiative, just so this lady will know.

221 Now I want the audience to keep their heads down, and pray, 'cause it goes from one to another. When you have to. . . Jesus said, "In My Name they shall cast out devils." Now you keep your head bowed if you don't want an ulcer. See?

222 Now here I want you to watch. You've got the ulcer, now you watch my hand and see that I don't move my hand.

223 Heavenly Father, let Thy mercies and grace be upon the woman, to make her well. She is watching my hand. She is watching, Father, to see if there is any change. And I know that, her faith, being nervous, I pray, God, that You'll help her. In Jesus' Name, help her.

224 Now, the lady, I haven't opened my eyes yet, but the lady knows that my hand still remains just as it was. Isn't that right, lady? [Sister says, "Yes, sir."—Ed.] Now watch it real close now.

225 So, this is not done to make a show. This is done to declare that Jesus keeps His Word. Now, He said, "In My Name they shall cast out devils."

226 Now I'm going to hold my hand just as steady. And I want you to notice, it's not the way I hold my hand. See, it's there all the time. See how it's swelling up? [The sister says, "Yes."—Ed.] Getting worse all the time ["Yes."] 'cause I'm holding. My whole hand is numb, to my elbow. Now you just watch it just a moment.

227 Lord Jesus, not for a show (we're not to do that), but that Your Word might be fulfilled. You never healed the people just because to show You were God, but it was fulfilling the Word. And that's the way I . . . why I do this tonight, Father, is my faith to believe that this good woman can be healed of this demon.

228 Satan, I charge you, in the Name of Jesus Christ, Who triumphed over all sickness, and it's under His feet. And as His servant, I take the initiative. In Jesus' Name, leave the woman, come out of her.

229 Now I have not moved my hand. The lady bear me record. Something happened to my hand, wasn't it? [The sister says, "Yes, sir."—Ed.] If that's right, say, "Amen." ["Yes. Amen."] It's gone, isn't it? ["Yes. Amen. It's gone."] You are healed. ["Hallelujah!"] Now there she is. ["Thank You, Jesus!"] Now look here. I put my hand on, now put your hand on, just the same. ["Yes. Amen."] You're healed. ["Yes. Amen. Hallelujah!"] Go on, go eat your supper, Jesus Christ makes you well.

"In My Name they shall cast out devils!" Yes.

230 Do you believe, sister? Do you believe? Do you believe that God can take that asthmatic condition away from you and make you well? All right, go on your road, say, "Thank You, Lord Jesus. I believe You, with all my heart."

231 How do you do, sir? Heart has been bothering you, kind of a blockage caused from nervous; pounds, double pound, one on . . . two on one side, and one on the other. All right, sir, it stops now. Go on. Your faith makes you whole, sir. Go, believing with all your heart. All right.

232 Another stomach, bad. Do you believe that Jesus makes you well? Just go, say, "Thank You, Lord Jesus." Believe it. If He can tell you what you are, surely He can heal you.

233 What if I didn't say one word to you, just laid hands on you, would you believe that you got healed, sitting there in the chair? Would you? Go on your road, say, "Thank You, Lord." It's what you believe.

234 Come. Do you believe that God healed that back trouble, sitting there then? All right, you can go on, say, "Thank You, Lord." Believe with all your heart. Go on and believe.

235 Sir, if God don't heal you, one day you're going to be crippled up, like this, with a stick, walking along with that arthritis. Why not accept Him right now? Do you believe it? Go on your road, and say, "Thank You, Lord." And stomp the thing, and go right on your road, rejoicing.

236 Jesus heals your back and make you well. Do you believe that? All right, go on your road, saying, "Thank You, Dear God."

237 Come here, lady. Now what's you scared of? The reason you're afraid, it's menopause time for you. You know what I mean, a lady's change. And everything, of an evening late, you get weary. You can't do your work, you get so tired. Isn't that right? [The sister says, "That's true."—Ed.] All right. It's all right now. Go on, your faith makes you well.

238 Another, nervous, but you've been nervous all your life, been a little nervous when you was younger. You was a little fritzzy going around. But now look like something's just got a hold of you. You're oppressed all of the time. Isn't that right? It won't be no more, if you'll believe me right now as God's prophet. Go and believe.

239 How many out there believe with all your heart? Put your hands over on one another. In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, I charge every man and woman here to lay your hands on one another.

²⁴⁰ If God's Word, part of It's right, all of It's right. Jesus Christ said, "In—in My Name they shall cast out devils." "The Word of God is a Discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

²⁴¹ Jesus said, "If they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover." Every believer in here, say "amen" to that. [Congregation says, "Amen."—Ed.] Then, you are believers, you pray for the one that's got your . . . You pray for the one that's got their hands on you, for they are praying for you. Let's pray together and defeat the enemy, and let every sick person in here be healed, in the Presence of Jesus Christ.

²⁴² Almighty God, Author of Life, Giver of all good gifts, send Thy blessings upon this people.

²⁴³ Satan, you've lost the battle. Jesus Christ is here. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Christians have their hands on one another. They are praying the prayer of faith.

²⁴⁴ You said, "These signs shall follow them that believe." Each one of them said, "Amen," they believe. They punctuated the desire of Your heart, when You said, "These signs shall follow them that believe." They lay their hands on one another.

²⁴⁵ You are defeated, Satan. Come out of them, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Leave this place and leave this building, in Jesus Christ's Name.

²⁴⁶ Every man and woman that believes that a believer has his hands on you, the prayer of faith is prayed, and you are ready to forsake your sickness, forsake your thoughts about it, and accept the Word of God to go in your heart, stand up on your feet and accept your healing, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen and amen! Raise up your hands now and give Him praise, for it's all over.
